Vintage report

The 2023 wine year will go down in history as one of the fastest harvests on record. Capricious weather brought extreme drought, which was followed by weeks of heavy rainfall that culminated in an extremely warm late summer. With September temperatures of up to 30 degrees, the grapes were collected in the cool night and morning hours so that the must did not end up overheated in the vats. The main challenge of the year was to bring in healthy grapes. In many places, diligent pre
